Hottinger & Cie, Switzerland has gone live on the OLYMPIC Banking System

ERI is pleased to announce that Hottinger & Cie (with head office in Zurich and branch office in Geneva) has gone live on the latest version of the OLYMPIC Banking System.

Using the OLYMPIC Banking System to provide the bank with a modern, integrated, Front to Back Office solution, Hottinger & Cie will be counting on the application to support both internal users and a number of external advisors.

Thanks to the close collaboration between the project team within the bank and the team assigned to the implementation by ERI.

Hottinger & Cie., is headquartered in Zurich, and also has offices in Geneva. Together with partner companies, the bank has a staff of approximately 100 people. Its services include typical private banking services including wealth management, investment advisory, trust and corporate services, etc.

The use of the OLYMPIC Banking System in Switzerland will complement the bank's current use of the application in Luxembourg and means that the bank's various locations are running on the latest, SOA-compliant, version of the application.
